

Health Services Research for a Veteran-Centered Learning Organization

Local Information

Dining

The following are just a few conveniently located dining options.

In the hotel:

- Circ. Casual lounge dining and drinks.
- 13 Restaurant. Steak house-style dining.
- Starbucks. Coffee, light snacks, and sandwiches.

Outside the hotel:

- Reading Terminal Market. Hundreds of food vendors located in an historic setting. Also features gifts & locally grown & produced goods. 51 N 12th St.
- Maggiano's Little Italy. Family-style Italian dining. 1201 Filbert at Market St.
- Bank & Bourbon. American farm-to-table cuisine. 1200 Market St @ the Loews Hotel.
- The Melting Pot. Fondue restaurant featuring chocolate, cheese, or broth. 1219 Filbert @ Market.
- Kabukiza Sushi. Sushi, tempura, and Japanese cuisine. 45 N 13th St

Historic Philadelphia

Independence National Historical Park. Located a five block walk from the hotel at the corner of 6th and Market. Accessible by the Market-Frankford line from 5th Street Station. Among other landmarks, the park houses:

- Independence Hall
- The Liberty Bell
- The Benjamin Franklin Museum
- Edgar Allen Poe National Historic Site

To learn more about the Park, visit their website at:
<http://www.nps.gov/inde/>

Transportation

The hotel is located at 1201 Market Street, Philadelphia and is accessible by the SEPTA regional rail line from the airport. The stop closest is Jefferson Station.

The Market-Frankford subway line is adjacent to the hotel and serves several popular historical destinations

Philly Phlash Bus

This bus offers convenient transportation between a dozen different attractions around the downtown area. Adults: $2.00. Over 65 & under 4: Free. For more information, visit ridephillyplash.com.

(Map of local area on reverse side.)

