

Confidentiality Agreement

HSR&D CDAei Toolkit

Respecting confidentiality is a very important consideration in a mentoring relationship. Please use the following statements to develop a confidentiality agreement for this mentorship. You may accept these as they are or build upon them as necessary.

- 1. Discussions and information shared between mentor and mentee should remain confidential, unless sharing of such privileged information is given explicit permission or if the circumstances fulfill the conditions listed in this agreement. (use the space below to add to this)

- 2. Add other additional conditions you both mutually agree to.
