

Research Questions for VetREP Investigators

1. What was the impetus for this research?
2. What are the questions the researchers hope to answer by the study?
3. Who do you think this project will help?
4. What are the risks and benefits of the study for the Veteran/caregiver?
5. What are the limitations of this study?
6. How will you inform Veterans and/or caregivers about study findings, and how do you hope those findings could ultimately impact their care?
  - If you do not plan to inform Veterans and/or caregivers about study findings, then why not?
7. What are the next steps for the project and the participants?
8. What are the plans to sustain your research efforts?