

WELCOME!

We are your fellow Veterans and we too have struggled with chronic pain. We are advising the VOICE study team on how to make this research more meaningful and relevant to Veterans. We know you just want to feel healthier and feel less pain. The study isn't about your pain medications, it's about your pain – how to make it better so you can live a more full life and you working as a team with providers to figure out what works best to improve pain not just for you, but for all our fellow Vets.

Thank you for being a part of VOICE!
